

Our Savior
Lutheran Church
Ordinary People—Extraordinary
Love

Our Savior Times

January 22, 2012

Upcoming Events

Jan 25

Revelation Bible study—9:30 am
& 7 pm

Jan 22

Family Matters
Bible study—
Grandparents' role

Jan 28

1 pm Bible Information Class

Jan 29

Sunday school bowling after Sunday school

Feb 11

Women's Appreciation Dinner

News

Altar Guild met this last week to plan Lent and Easter. They are discussing a new palm idea for Palm Sunday. Should be interesting!

Next week will be our last Bible study on Family Matters! We'll look at how to handle the role of being adult children to aging parents.

Karin's step mother died this last week. She knew Jesus as her Savior from sin, so this was a happy/sad funeral. May our Savior comfort the family. Thank him for bringing another saint safely home!

Word is that James & Ashley hope to open their own coffee shop in downtown

Roanoke. Lord's blessings! When we know their grand opening date, we'll let you know!

Deb came home Tuesday night from North Dakota where she was helping with her father. Dana's dietary freedom has ended!

This Sunday we're explaining why we worship the way we do. This includes the Biblical truths behind the different parts of our liturgy. Harvey is serving as "narrator."

In 2 weeks we begin a new Sunday morning Bible study on the book of Mark. This author will help us understand the power of Jesus and the love that led him to suffer so much for us. Join us Feb 4th for the new discoveries of our Mighty Savior!

Harvey just got his reading assignments for the Feb 13th workshop on Bible translation. He says there is so much reading that it will keep him busy and out of trouble for the next several weeks. We'll see about that!

Chris Early makes his living repairing small engines. If you would like him to winterize your lawnmower or ???, you can reach him at

540-354-8128